Hollywood in the Hamptons

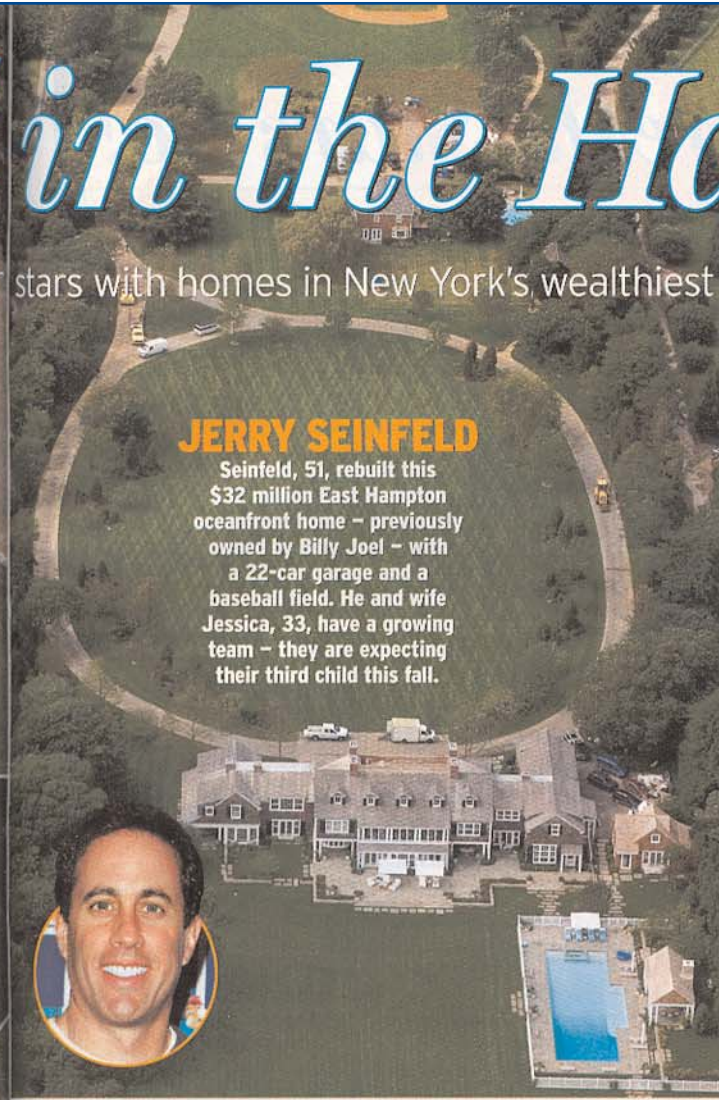

It's summertime and the living is easy – especially for stars with homes in New York's wealthiest beach community

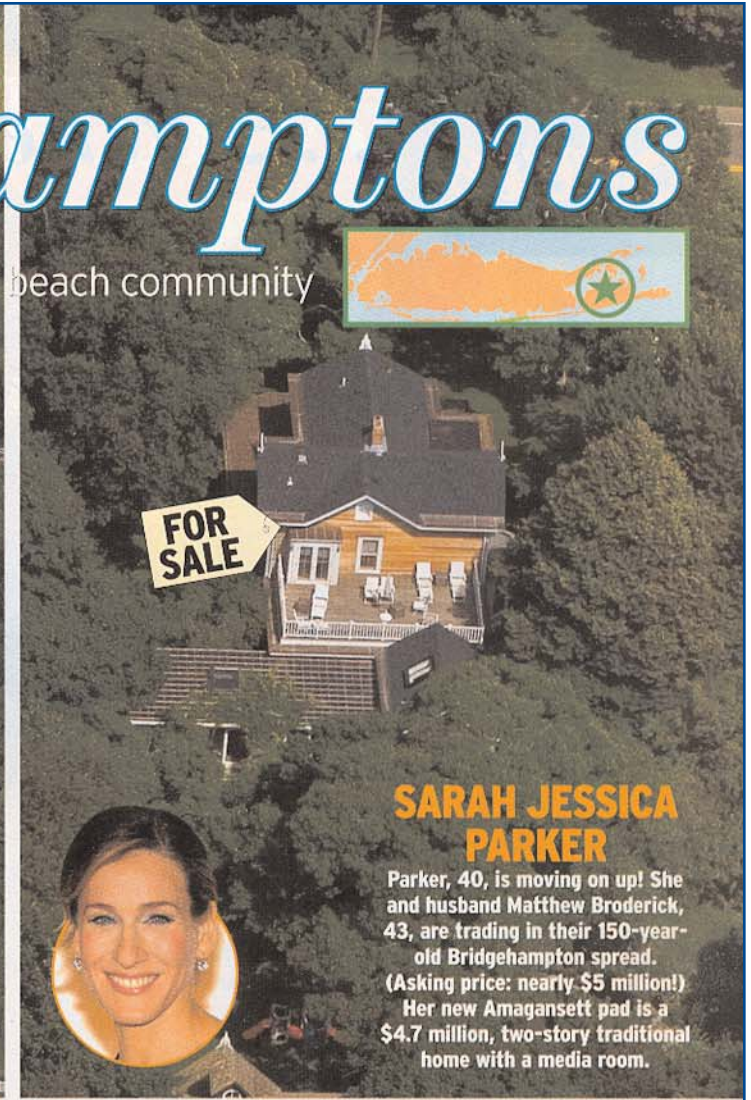

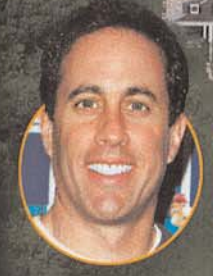

KELLY RIPA
Ripa, 34, and her actor husband, Mark Consuelos, 35, custom-designed this $3.5 million, six-bedroom pad. The perks: a steam room, a one-hole golf course and two pools, including a kiddie one for their three children.

WHY STARS LOVE THE HAMPTONS

"It's beautiful," actor Ed Burns tells Us. "The light, the sea, the farms and open spaces – it's a combination you can't beat!" Ever since War of the Worlds director Steven Spielberg snatched up his lavish spread in East Hampton in 1983 – recent sleepover guests have included Tom Hanks and Bill Clinton! – stars have flocked to these seaside communities, 100 miles east of NYC. "It's the Hollywood of the East," Power Girls star Lizzie Grubman, tells Us. (Her infamous 2001 car accident immortalized the area even further.) Those expected to join Hamptons regulars like Renée Zellweger and Gwyneth Paltrow this summer? Leonardo DiCaprio, Ashley Olsen and Molly Sims.

JERRY SEINFELD
Seinfeld, 51, rebuilt this $32 million East Hampton oceanfront home – previously owned by Billy Joel – with a 22-car garage and a baseball field. He and wife Jessica, 33, have a growing team – they are expecting their third child this fall.

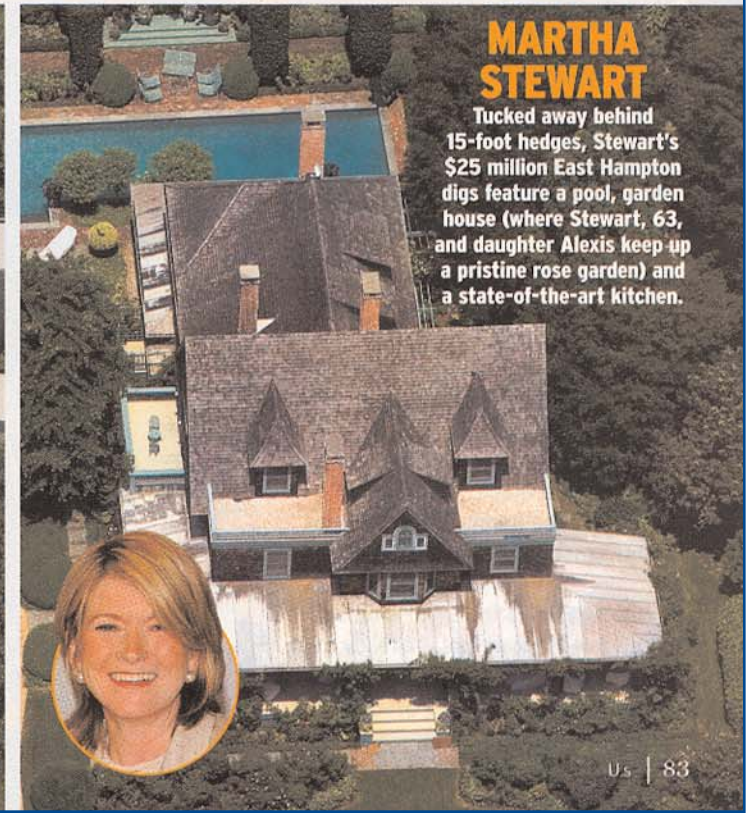

SARAH JESSICA PARKER

Parker, 40, is moving on up! She and husband Matthew Broderick, 43, are trading in their 150-year-old Bridgehampton spread. (Asking price: nearly $5 million!) Her new Amagansett pad is a $4.7 million, two-story traditional home with a media room.

P. DIDDY
When he tires of his $10 million New Jersey mansion or NYC loft, Diddy, 35, retreats to this $2.5 million, four-bedroom steel-and-chrome manse. Pals enter through a gate with the initials PD.

MARTHA STEWART

Tucked away behind 15-foot hedges, Stewart's $25 million East Hampton digs feature a pool, garden house (where Stewart, 63, and daughter Alexis keep up a pristine rose garden) and a state-of-the-art kitchen.
